

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the City of Seattle is proud to be the home of dedicated public servants who work to protect animals from neglect and abuse; and

WHEREAS, the Seattle Animal Shelter provides adoption and pet licensing services and educates the public about preventing and ending cruelty to animals; and

WHEREAS, there are many guardian angels in our community who rescue animals in dangerous situations and help them find a safe home and a loving family; and

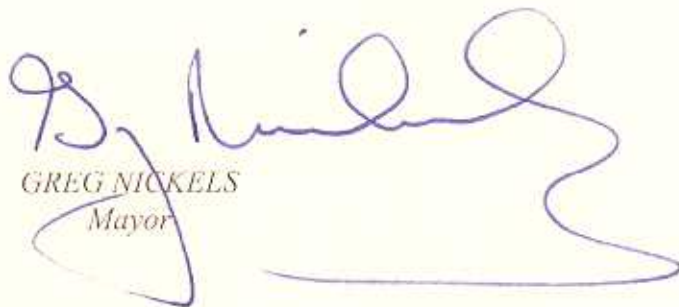

WHEREAS, on September 17, 2005, the entire community will thank the Seattle Animal Shelter and the guardian angels who ensure that the animals in our community receive the care and love they deserve;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GREGORY J. NICKELS, Mayor of the City of Seattle, do hereby proclaim September 17, 2005 to be in Seattle, and I encourage all citizens to recognize the guardian angels who have rescued animals from abuse and join in the effort to end cruelty to animals.
